

I think you should allow New Jersey citizens to keep their "do not call" law as is. Our state legislature was following the will of thier people by making this law and we do not want anything less strick.